

49th Algonquian Conference/49^e congrès des algonquinistes
 27-29 October 2017/27-29 Octobre 2017
 Pavillon Jean-Brillant, Université de Montréal
 3200 Jean Brillant St, Montreal, QC H3T 1N8

VENDREDI / FRIDAY 27-10-17

	SESSION 1 salle/room B-3240	SESSION 2 salle/room B-3245	SESSION 3 salle/room B-3250
11h00-11h30	Salle/room B-3240 Mot de bienvenue/ Welcome statement
11h30-12h	Laurence Hamel-Charest « Range ton baloney, il y a de l'original! » : regard sur l'alimentation en contexte anicinabe »	David Pentland "The Earliest Records of the Montagnais Language: A Reassessment"	Rose-Marie Dechaine, Monique Dufresne & Charlotte Reinholtz "(Ir)realis dubitative in the Cree dialect continuum"
12h-12h30	Joseph Friis et Jacques Wabanonik « Résurgence autochtone et réconciliation « autocritique » : Séjours de sensibilisation à la culture anicinape et à la pédagogie de la terre – Kitcisakik ? »	David Costa "Instrumental Nouns in Miami-Illinois"	Chantale Cenerini "The Prominence of Speech-Act Participants: A study of diachronic change in Algonquian person agreement"

LUNCH TIME
14h	Véronique Audet « Le mouvement des pow wow chez les Innus au Québec : Algonquiens contemporains, enjeux identitaires et échanges culturels »	Margaret Noodin « Gikinoo'amawaag Eko-Niizhing-Biboon Gikinoo'amaaganag Ji-Anishinaabebiigewaad: Teaching Students Anishinaabemowin Rhetoric and Composition »	Peter Bakker & Robert Papen "Clause combining in Plains Cree and Michif"
14h30-15h	Émile Duchesne « Les maîtres des animaux et le changement chez les Innus d'Unamen Shipu »	Rose-Marie Dechaine "Derivational paradigms: A tool for learning vocabulary (and epistemology)"	Olivia Sammons "Nominal classification in Michif "
15h-15h30	Anny Morissette « Ces Indiens se plaignent pour rien » : Les agents indiens et la gestion des écoles de jour indiennes à Kitigan Zibi (1879 - 1953) »	Nathon Breu "Aanji'zaagibagaa: Changing Blooms"	Robert Papen "On confirming the Split Phonology Hypothesis for Michi"
Pause/Break
15h45-1615	Robert Brightman Ontologies of Domestication: Reindeer, Dogs, and Tamed Bears		Nicole Rosen & Carrie Gillon "An examination of Michif gender"
16h15-16h45	Anne-Marie Reynaud "Mitchikanibikok Inik Sense of Self and Remembering in the context of the Indian Residential Schools Settlement Agreement"

SAMEDI/SATURDAY 28-10-17

	SESSION 1 salle/room B-3240	SESSION 2 salle/room B-3245	SESSION 3 salle/room B-3250
9h-9h30	Ben Levine “New Approaches for Aiding Fluent Comprehenders to Regain the Ability to Speak Their Language”	Paul Watez “It never disappeared”: Analysis of the nature and the status of the knowledge involved in the current and historical practice of the shaking tent among the Eenouch of Waswanipi”	Lucy Thomason “Space/Time Parallelism in Meskwaki”
9h30-10h	Robert Leavitt, Julia Schulz & Newell Lewey. “The Passamaquoddy-Maliseet Language Portal: Who Uses it and How?”	Mélanie Chaplier & Colin Scott “From beavers to land: building on past debates to unpack the contemporary entanglements of Algonquian family hunting territories“ / « Des castors au territoire: faire le point sur le débat entourant les territoires de chasse familiaux algonquistes pour comprendre leurs enchevêtrements contemporains »	H.C Wolfart “Names and Naming Formulae in Literary Plains Cree”
10h-10h30	Olivia Sammons & Katie Grant “Developing corpora for endangered languages: An example from Sauk”		Ives Goddard “The Paradox of Partial Similarity; The Morphology and Syntax of Unami Secondary Object Marking and its Clones”

Pause/Break
10h45-11h15	Marie-Odile Junker, Marguerite Mackenzie, Yvette Mollen, Nicole Petiquay, Véronique Chachai, Bill Jancewicz, Nicole Rosen Antti Arppe, Arok Wolvengrey, Jean Okimasis, Inge Genee, Mary-Ann Corbiere, Rand Valentine, Heather Bliss & Delasie Torkornoo, “Algonquian Dictionaries and Linguistic Atlas Project: progress report 2”/Projet des dictionnaires algonquistes et d’atlas linguistique: deuxième rapport.	Leila Inkseter “The trouble and expense of holding an election: Algonquin selection of representatives at the turn of the 20th century”	Rose-Marie Dechaine & HC Wolfart “What Plains Cree teaches us about negation”
11h15-1145	Will Oxford & Graham Still "Developing a Database of Algonquian Language Structures"	Toby Morantz “The Ungava Naskapis meet the Canadian Bureaucracy“	Amy Dahlstrom “An overview of Meskwaki evidentiality”
11h45-12h15	Susan Wade & Patricia T. Nájera “Perspectives from Ganawandemaw: Protection of Language Revitalization and Language Ideologies in the Great Lakes Region“	Grant Karcich ”Archaic and Historic Population Clusters in Eastern North America”	Antti Arppe Katherine Schmirler, Atticus G. Harrigan & Arok Wolvengrey “A Morpho-Syntactically Tagged Corpus for Plains Cree”

LUNCH TIME

13h30-14h	Katherine Schmirler, Antti Arppe, Trond Trosterud & Lene Antonsen “Computational modelling of Plains Cree syntax: A Constraint Grammar approach to verbs and arguments in a Plains Cree corpus”	Véronique Chachai, Marie-Odile Junker, Nicole Petiquay et Katie Martunizzi « La langue atikamekw aujourd’hui/ Anotc nehirowimowin »	Mizuki Miysahita & Natalie Weber “Blackfoot Pitch Contour: An Instrumental Investigation”
-----------	---	--	--

14h-14h30	Inge Genee, Myles Shirakaw & Heather Bliss « Building a catalogue of Variation in Contemporary Blackfoot (VCB) »	Vincent Collette « Comment parler des défunt(e)s en cri des Plaines? »	Taylor Miller « Revisiting Prosodic Prominence in Saulteaux Ojibwe »
14h30-15h	Heather Bliss, Inge Genee, Marie-Odile Junker & Dan O'Donnell « Credit where credit is due”: How to handle attribution, copyright, and intellectual property in on-line digital resources for Algonquian languages.”	Şükran Tipi « Entre Nuhtshimit et Nitassinan: narrer et nommer le territoire chez les Pekuakamiulnuatsh, Innus du Lac Saint-Jean »	Sarah Babinski “A New Approach to Stress in Southern East Cree”
Pause/Break
15h15-15h45	Allison Sanders & Andrew Cowell “An In-depth Exploration of an Algonquian Classifier”	Jacques Leroux « À propos de marqueurs du temps et de l'aspect dans la langue algonquine (Anicinabemowin) »	Roy Wright “Wolf & Flint: Malsom in the Middle (of Missisquoi-Massachusetts & Tawiskaron)
15h45-16h15	Cherry Meyer “Numeral and Verbal Classifiers in Ojibwe”	Sauvane Agnès « Le système "direct-inverse" des langues algonquiennes: un type d'alignement »	Dianne Friesen & Arlene Stevens « Obstruent plus resonant clusters in Mi'kmaq »

BANQUET Saturday/Samedi 18h (6PM) at Université du Québec à Montréal. Entrance : 315, rue Sainte-Catherine Est, Montréal. Salle/room: J-2850 (Pavillon Judith-Jasmin/ Judith Jasmin Building)

DIMANCHE / SUNDAY 29-10-17

	SESSION 1 salle/room B-3240	SESSION 2 salle/room B-3245	SESSION 3 salle/room B-3250
9h-9h30	Anne Bertrand, Violet Birdstone & Martina Wiltschko "Verbal obviation in Ktunaxa"	Ryan Henke "Acquiring possessive constructions in Northern East Cree"	Cecil Chabot "Rediscovering Our Shared Humanity: Insights from a Foreign Medical Doctor's Mid-Twentieth-Century Encounter with Northern Algonquian People and Stories"
9h30-10h		Robert Lewis, jr "The Potawatomi particle na: How and where to use it"	Peter Bakker "Eastern Algonquians and the Basque Country in the 21 st century"
Pause/Break
10h15-10h45	Christopher Hammerly "The structure of VOS/VSO alternations in Ojibwe"	Daniel Paul Stoltzfus "Exploratory study on verbal morphological frequency in Northwestern Ojibwe"	Richard Rhodes "A Civil War Soldier's Letter"
10h45-11h15	Will Oxford "When direct and inverse are asymmetrical"	Judy Shepard & Connor Quinn "Morphosyntax in Algonquian and ASL: Insights from Comparison"	Atticus G. Harrigan & Antti Arppe "Conjunct(ion) Junct(ion): what's your function".